Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Company's Board of Management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Auditor's Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements give a true and fair view, in all material respects, of the financial position of Phu Hung Securities Corporation as at 31 December 2023 and of its results of operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting System for Enterprises, Circular No. 210/2014/TT-BTC dated 30 December 2014 issued by the Ministry of Finance on the promulgation of accounting guidance for securities companies and Circular No. 334/2016/TT-BTC dated 27 December 2016 issued by the Ministry of Finance amending, supplementing and superseding Appendix 02 and Appendix 04 of Circular 210 and the relevant statutory requirements applicable to financial reporting.

Form B09 – CTCK

*(Issued under Circular No. 334/2016/TT-BTC
dated 27 December 2016 of the Ministry of Finance)*

(d) Financial assets at FVTPL

A financial asset at fair value through profit or loss is a financial asset that meets either of the following conditions:

- It is considered by management as held for trading. A financial asset is considered as held for trading if:
 - it is acquired principally for the purpose of selling it in the near term;
 - there is evidence of a recent pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
 - a derivative (except for a derivative that is financial guarantee contract or a designated and effective hedging instrument).
- Upon initial recognition, it is designated by the Company as at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial assets at FVTPL are initially recognised at cost which includes the purchase price. Subsequent to initial recognition they are measured at market price or fair value (when market price is not available) with changes in market price or fair value being recognised in profit or loss in the statement of income.

For listed securities, the market prices are the closing prices of securities from the Ho Chi Minh City Stock Exchange and the Hanoi Stock Exchange at the latest trading date prior to the end of the annual reporting period.

For securities registered for trading in Unlisted Public Company Market ("UPCOM"), the market prices are the closing prices of securities from UPCOM at the latest trading date prior to the end of the annual reporting period.

For unlisted securities and not yet registered for trading, the market price is the average price of the transaction prices at the latest trading date prior to the end of the annual reporting period but within one month from the reporting date provided by three securities companies which are not related to the Company. In case there are no transaction prices within this period, no allowance is required.

For delisted securities and securities for which trading has been suspended or cancelled from the sixth day onward, the fair value is the book value at the latest balance sheet date.

Investments in equity instruments including derivative instruments to be settled by equity instruments are stated at cost if there are no market prices and their fair values cannot be determined reliably.

(e) Held-to-maturity investments

Held-to-maturity investments are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and a fixed maturity that the Company has the positive intention and ability to hold to maturity, other than:

- those that the Company on initial recognition designates as at fair value through profit or loss;
- those that the Company on initial recognition designates as available-for-sale; and
- those that meet the definition of loans and receivable.

Held-to-maturity investments comprise term deposits at banks and these investments are stated at cost less allowance for doubtful debts.

Form B09 – CTCK

*(Issued under Circular No. 334/2016/TT-BTC
dated 27 December 2016 of the Ministry of Finance)*

(f) Loans receivable

Loans receivable are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market.

Loans receivable comprise margin loans and advances to customers for the proceeds from selling securities. Loans receivable are stated at cost less allowance for doubtful debts. Allowance for doubtful debts is determined based on the difference between market price or fair value of the collateral and gross carrying amount of the loan receivable at the end of the annual reporting period.

(g) Accounts receivable

Receivables from sales of financial assets and services rendered and other receivables are stated at cost less allowance for doubtful debts.

Allowance for doubtful debts is made based on the overdue status of debts or expected losses on undue debts which may occur when an economic organisation is bankrupted or liquidated; or debtor is missing, running away, being prosecuted, in prison, under a trial or pending execution of sentences or deceased.

The allowance for doubtful debts based on overdue status is made by reference to overdue status as follows:

Overdue status	Allowance rate
From six (06) months to less than one (01) year	30%
From one (01) year to less than two (02) years	50%
From two (02) years to less than three (03) years	70%
From three (03) years and over	100%

For overdue debts, the Company's management also assesses the expected recovery of the debts in determining the allowance.

Allowance for doubtful debts based on the expected losses of undue debts is determined by the Company's management after giving consideration to the recovery of these debts.

(h) Covered warrants

Covered warrants gives its holder the right to buy (call warrant) or sell (put warrant) underlying securities to issuing organisations at a predetermined price, on or before a predetermined date, or to receive the difference between the exercise price and the underlying securities price at the exercise date.

The initial cost of a tangible fixed asset comprises its purchase price, including import duties, non-refundable purchase taxes and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Expenditure incurred after tangible fixed assets have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance and overhaul cost, is charged to the statement of income in the year in which the cost is incurred. In situations where it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditure has resulted in an increase in the future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of tangible fixed assets beyond their originally assessed standard of performance, the expenditure is capitalised as an additional cost of tangible fixed assets.

(ii) Depreciation

Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of tangible fixed assets. The estimated useful lives are as follows:

▪ leasehold improvements	5 years
▪ office equipment	3 - 7 years
▪ motor vehicles	3 - 4 years
▪ fixtures and fittings	5 years

(j) Intangible fixed assets

Form B09 – CTCK

Cost of tools and instruments are amortised on a straight-line basis over a period ranging from 2 to 3 years.

(l) Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables are stated at their cost.

(m) Provisions

A provision is recognised if, as a result of a past event, the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability.

Severance allowance

Under the Vietnamese Labour Code, when an employee who has worked for 12 months or more ("the eligible employees") voluntarily terminates his/her labour contract, the employer is required to pay the eligible employee severance allowance calculated based on years of service and employee's compensation at termination. Provision for severance allowance has been provided based on employees' years of service and their average salary for the year prior to the end of the annual accounting period. For the purpose of determining the number of years of service by an employee, the period for which the employee participated in and contributed to unemployment insurance in accordance with prevailing laws and regulations and the period for which severance allowance has been paid by PHS, ATS and the Company are excluded.

(n) Taxation

Income tax on the profit or loss for the year comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax is recognised as expense/income except to the extent that it relates to items recognised directly to equity, in which case it is recognised in equity.

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted at the reporting date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax is provided for temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. (ii) Risk management framework

The Board of Management has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Company's risk management framework. (b) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations.

To manage the level of credit risk, the Company attempts to deal with counterparties of good credit standing, and when appropriate, obtains collaterals. The management has established a credit policy under which each new customer is analysed individually for credit worthiness before the standard terms and conditions are offered.

dated 27 December 2016 of the Ministry of Finance)*

Concentrations of credit risk that arise from groups of counterparties when they have similar economic characteristics that would cause their ability to meet contractual obligations to be similarly affected by changes in economic or other conditions. The major concentrations of credit risk arise from type of customer in relation to the Company's advances to customers for proceeds from selling securities and margin loans.

Collaterals

The amount and type of collateral required depends on an assessment of the credit risk of the counterparty. Guidelines are implemented regarding the acceptability of types of collateral and valuation parameters. The main types of collateral obtained are listed securities and cash deposited at the Company. Management monitors the market value of collateral, requests additional collateral in accordance with the underlying agreement, and monitors the market value of collateral obtained during its review of the adequacy of the allowance for doubtful debts.

Exposure to credit risk

Not considering collaterals, the Company's maximum exposure to credit risk at the end of the annual reporting period was as follows:

dated 27 December 2016 of the Ministry of Finance)(i) Cash in banks, cash equivalents and held-to-maturity investments

Cash in banks, cash equivalents and held-to-maturity investments of the Company are mainly held with well-known financial institutions. Management does not foresee any significant credit risk from these deposits and does not expect that these financial institutions may default and cause losses to the Company.

(ii) Loans receivable and other receivables

The Company's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each customer. In response to the risk, credit limit is established for each customer, which represents the maximum open amount. The limit is reviewed annually. Customers with balances that are overdue are requested to settle the balances before further credit is granted. Customers are obliged to ensure their margin ratio is not lower than the maintenance margin ratio regulated by the Company. In case a customer's margin ratio drops below the maintenance margin ratio, the Company requires the customer to supplement additional collateral in an agreed period. If the customer does not supplement additional collateral, the Company will implement handling measures in accordance with the contract. The main types of collateral obtained are cash deposits and securities. The management of the Company monitors the market value of collateral and requests additional collateral in accordance with the underlying agreement and monitors the market price of collateral obtained during its review of the adequacy of the allowance for doubtful debts.

Loans receivable and other receivables that are neither past due nor impaired mainly relate to a wide range of customers for whom there was no recent history of default. Management believes that those receivables are of high credit quality.

The Company's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will always have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Company's reputation.

dated 27 December 2016 of the Ministry of Finance)(d) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that changes in market prices, such as foreign exchange rates, interest rates and equity prices will affect the Company's results of operations or the value of its holdings of financial instruments. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters, while optimising the return.

(i) Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates.

The Company is exposed to currency risk on borrowings that are denominated in a currency other than the accounting currency of the Company, which is VND. The currency in which these transactions primarily are denominated is United States Dollars ("USD").

Exposure to currency risk

The Company had the following net monetary liability position exposed to currency risk:

	31/12/2023		31/12/2022
	USD	VND equivalent	USD	VND equivalent
Short-term borrowings	66,000,000	1,613,040,000,000	73,000,000	1,733,020,000,000

The followings are the significant exchange rate applied by the Company:

	Exchange rate as at
	31/12/2023	31/12/2022
USD/VND	24,440	23,740

Below is an analysis of the possible impact on the net profit of the Company, after taking into account the current level of exchange rates and the historical volatility as well as market expectations at the end of annual accounting period. This analysis assumes that all other variables, in particular interest rates, remain constant.

	Effect to net profit after tax VND
As at 31 December 2023
USD (3% strengthening against VND) – decrease in net profit	38,712,960,000
As at 31 December 2022
USD (4% strengthening against VND) – decrease in net profit	55,456,640,000

The opposite movement of the USD would have the equal but opposite effect to the net profit of the Company.

dated 27 December 2016 of the Ministry of Finance)(ii) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

At the end of the annual accounting period, the interest rate profile of the Company's interest-bearing financial instruments was as follows:

	Carrying amount
	31/12/2023 VND	31/12/2022 VND
Interest-bearing instruments
Cash in banks and cash equivalents	196,820,272,609	763,877,428,183
Held-to-maturity investments	654,213,238,356	768,313,246,576
Loans receivable – net	2,921,367,768,104	1,978,475,933,799

Other long-term assets	10,059,454,943	10,039,238,233
Short-term borrowings	(1,990,040,000,000)	(1,833,020,000,000)

(iii) Other market risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the market values of equities decrease as a result of changes in the values of individual securities. The equity price risk exposure arises from the Company's financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

The Company's financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are affected by market risk arising from the uncertainty of the fluctuation of the future market price of these securities. The Company's equity price risk is managed by the management who seeks to monitor the risk through a careful selection of securities within specified limits.

As at 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022, the Company's exposure to equity price risk is minimal because the Company held insignificant portfolio of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss for the trading purpose.

SUBMISSION FOR APPROVAL
Development and Business Plan of the Company for Year 2024

To: THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS OF PHU HUNG SECURITIES CORPORATION

- Pursuant to the Law on Enterprises No. 59/2020/QH14;
- Pursuant to the Current Charter of Phu Hung Securities Corporation;

The Board of Directors (BOD) of Phu Hung Securities Corporation (PHS) hereby submits the proposal of Development and Business Plan of the Company in 2024 as follows:

In 2024, Company will focus on the sustainable development, balancing between profitability and risk.

1. Brokerage

In 2023, Vietnam's stock market experienced notable fluctuations, leading to an emotionally charged journey for investors. Despite challenges in the last quarter of 2022, investor sentiment seemed more stable, with lingering doubts about future prospects persisted in the early months of 2023. From June 2023 and onwards, the Vietnamese stock market began to witness a positive recovery. Optimistic outlooks from global issues and the government's proactive policies supporting businesses, along with the SBV's monetary policies, propelled the Vietnamese stock market into a short-term growth phase.

The VN-Index surged and peaked at 1,245.5 points on September 6, 2023, increase approximately 23.6% compared to the end of 2022. The clear improvement extended not only to the VN-Index but also to market liquidity. The average daily liquidity for the entire market increased to over VND 23 trillion, doubling from the earlier months of 2023. This reflects investors' renewed confidence and the positive return of capital to the market. In 2023, the government also took several proactive actions to promote the upgrading of the Vietnamese stock market, coupled with positive signals from the global economy, heightening positive expectations for the Vietnamese stock market in 2024.

In the first nine months of 2023, the company faced significant challenges amid the general difficulties of the Vietnamese stock market. Total market liquidity decreased by about 15% compared to the entire year of 2022, impacting company's transaction value, and the securities brokerage revenue recorded a decline compared to the same period last year, reaching just over VND 108 billion. Nevertheless, the company implemented effective cost management measures, reducing brokerage costs to VND 123.6 billion. Demonstrating the company's flexibility and ability to adapt to the unstable business environment of the stock market.

The margin lending business maintained stable performance similar to the previous year, reaching VND 229.7 billion. Indicating as the positive factor demonstrating the company's stability in financial support services, helping to protect revenue and sustain profits. Through flexible customer development policies, the company secured a position in the top 8 market shares of government bond brokerage in the third quarter of 2023. This not only reflects the company's efforts to maintain and expand its customer network, but also demonstrates its ability to adapt and capitalize on opportunities in a dynamic market.

In 2024, PHS will focus strongly on developing and offering new services to meet the growing needs of individual investors in the stock market. Recognizing the importance of this customer segment, PHS has set specific targets to optimize business operations and enhance its market share in securities brokerage.

One of the top priorities is upgrading the stock trading system to optimize the trading experience for individual customers. Flexibility, speed, and security are paramount to ensure that investors can easily execute trades and monitor market conditions conveniently. Additionally, improving the quality of investment advice is a crucial part of the development strategy. PHS will invest in training and developing a team of advisory experts, while providing tools and quality information sources to support individual investors in making informed investment decisions. Deploying a diverse range of products tailored for different investor groups is an effective strategy for attracting and retaining customers. This approach will ensure that every customer has options suitable for their goals and investment strategies.

Through these initiatives, PHS has set a market share target of 1.32% in securities brokerage for 2024. This target goes beyond numerical goal, but also a commitment of the company to bring real value to customers and the stock market. It also demonstrates PHS' determination to shape and develop sustainably in a period of volatility and intense competition within the financial market.

The futures securities brokerage business has become a standout for PHS in 2023, especially as the company secured the 7th position in the futures brokerage market share on the HNX with 2.66%. This represents an impressive growth of over 54% compared to the end of 2022 and is seven times higher than in 2021, the first year of implementing this business. Notably, the revenue from futures brokerage fees also experienced significant growth, doubling compared to the same period in 2022. This demonstrates the effectiveness and potential for development in this business, as well as the result of appropriate policies applied by the company to build and develop a potential sales team. This policy not only focuses on enhancing professional skills but also emphasizes customer care. This helps build a positive and professional working environment, thereby creating trust from customers and the market. Setting a target of a 2.87% market share in futures brokerage in 2024 is evidence of the company's confidence and determination in development and shaping the future.

With these positive results, PHS has demonstrated its ability to manage and leverage opportunities in a volatile market environment. The expansion into the futures securities brokerage field not only brings profit to the company but also contributes to the diversification and stability of the business in the challenging context of the stock market.

2. Advisory & Underwriting

The global economy continues its slow recovery, marked by divergence due to the cyclical effects of monetary tightening policies aimed at controlling inflation, escalating wars, and extreme weather events in 2023. In a context where there are more difficulties and challenges than advantages, both domestically and globally,

Vietnam's economy in the first 9 months of the year still recorded very respectable growth results. The GDP growth rate in the first 9 months of 2023 reached 4.24% and is showing a tendency to increase gradually over time. Inflation is under control, with the average consumer index increasing by 3.16% over the same period.

In 2023, the Advisory Division initiated internal restructuring efforts, diversified its products to meet market needs, and expanded its network of partners and customers through interactions with PHS branches and other securities companies. Additionally, Advisory Division established connections and provided advice to foreign companies already operating in Vietnam. Moreover, Advisory Division updated its consulting processes to ensure effective risk control in the implementation of service contracts, storage, and tracking of customer records.

In 2024, Advisory Division will maintain its primary business strategy of providing comprehensive consulting services to customers. This includes consultancy for listing, issuing, and raising capital for customers' businesses. Advisory Division will also continue to expand its network of domestic and foreign investors to meet the capital mobilization needs of businesses. For foreign customers operating in Vietnam seeking consultation on capital mobilization, capital divestment, or additional issuance, Advisory Division will actively connect and provide advice. Simultaneously, Advisory Division will focus on improving service quality and enhancing professionalism in the areas of corporate finance and M&A consulting to increase customer satisfaction and appeal to investors. Based on the current situation and existing capabilities, PHS plans to focus on developing Advisory Division in the following directions:

- Establishing a team of professional and capable staff to enhance service quality and address the diverse needs of potential customers.
- Maintain regular connections and collaboration with PHS branches and brokers to understand the needs of customers at the branches. Based on this understanding, Advisory Division will offer necessary services to customers, seize opportunities to secure consulting service contracts, and introduce the company to potential customers. Additionally, implementing a commission policy for those who introduce consulting service contracts will provide motivation for the growth of service contracts introduced by branch employees.
- Continue to sustain communication with both past and current customers, and broaden relationships with domestic and foreign businesses operating in Vietnam.

Establish a network of domestic and foreign investors by expanding connections with investment funds, securities companies, banks, and insurance companies to explore future cooperation opportunities.

3. Dealing

In 2023, following the recovery of the Vietnam stock market, the Dealing Division concentrated on identifying investment opportunities in leading stocks across mainstream industries and targets with specific topics in their business operation and prospects. However, an overall price readjustment in the stock market has occurred since mid-September. In the first 11 months of 2023, our portfolios saw a gain of only 2.1%.

The stock market remains an attractive investment channel, thanks to policy support measures aimed at boosting the economy next year. Furthermore, the Vietnam stock market is taking steps to upgrade its status from frontier to emerging. Recently, regulators and securities officials have been working closely to introduce a new trading system to the market. Therefore, there is confidence that the Vietnam stock market still holds promise and exhibits upside potential in 2024.

Our portfolio have been strategically reallocated to take advantage when the stock market rallies next year. Continually seeking opportunities to diversify and enhance our investment portfolio, with more comprehensive and instant monitoring in both fundamental and technical aspects, thus believe that the Dealing Division will be able to filter out more valuable investment opportunities and report better performance in 2024.

Currently, the watch-list for investable stocks is closely reviewed and adjusted based on observations of signals revealed from fundamental and technical indicators. The results of investment positions are regularly reviewed, and the stock tracking procedure will be recorded as a guideline for any investment decision-making in the future.

Overall, we are committed to closely monitoring the movements of the market and be more aggressive in searching for investment opportunities. With close cooperation with the Research Team, using a significant amount of fundamental and technical analysis, the Dealing Division has become more professional in chasing potential capital gains with well-analyzed reasonable risk exposure.

4. Cover Warrant

Since 2019 till now, the scale of issuing and listing covered warrants has exhibited continuously grown. In 2023, up until November 17, there have been 286 new covered warrants issued and listed on HOSE, and the number of outstanding covered warrants reached a new high of 241. Additionally, the daily average trading value of the covered warrant market has substantially increased from VND 20.8 billion to VND 28.01 billion, YoY 34.66% compared to 2022. The maximum trading volume and value reached a new high at 81.14 million shares and VND 100.26 billion on September 22, 2023, the trading value of the covered warrant market is highly correlated with VN-Index.

In 2023, PHS has contributed to this growth with three covered warrant issuances listed on HOSE, which are CHPG2304, CHPG2314, and CSTB2311. The average daily trading value of these three covered warrants is VND 483 million, with an issuance market share in 2023 of 1.05%.

Covered warrant products offer various advantages for individual investors, including trading convenience, lower entry barriers, leverage, and limited maximum loss. Notably, covered warrant products are the only listed derivatives for single stocks in Vietnam. Potential investors often lack knowledge about covered warrants. To address this, PHS plans to implement a marketing plan and focus on investor education in the upcoming years.

In 2024, PHS aims to develop several systems to support market-making and hedging activities more efficiently, accurately, and consistently. Simultaneously, leveraging automation, PHS intends to expand the number of covered warrants and enhance productivity per capita. The issuance of covered warrants will align with overall market trends and competitors' movements, with the goal of increasing market visibility and the outstanding position of covered warrants.

5. Marketing

Building on the previously established online communication platforms, in 2023, PHS will persist in the direction of revamping its image toward a professional and youthful aesthetic. The company will emphasize marketing activities to attract customers, encouraging them to become familiar with and open accounts at PHS through online channels.

Furthermore, PHS evaluates student programs or events at universities in Ho Chi Minh City, as well as online investment webinars for loyal investors with a more professional focus. All these events are characterized by a substantial scale, clear objectives, consistent content, and cohesive visual representation.

In 2024, the company's marketing communication and promotion activities will aim at achieving the following goals:

- Promote PHS's digital products and services to target investors. Build on 2023's activities with a set of carefully planned initiatives, PHS's 2024 promotional campaigns will emphasize explosiveness, uniqueness, and extensive coverage to attract and engage a significant number of interested customers.
- Establish strong relationships with media agencies as a foundation for risk management in the context of volatile markets. This proactive engagement ensures that information about PHS is presented accurately, preventing misleading narratives, and providing investors with a reliable source of useful information from the press.
- Measure and manage marketing data to enhance customer care. Digital marketing communications offer the advantage of capturing customer behavioral data, providing insights for evaluating the effectiveness of activities. Therefore, in 2024, marketing data will be meticulously processed to serve as valuable input for internal improvement activities within the company.

6. Risk Management

PHS recognizes that risk is an integral and unavoidable component of business and is committed to managing risk in a proactive, flexible, and effective manner, without abruptly changing policies, and providing robust support for business activities.

The stock market in 2023 experienced significant macroeconomic fluctuations both domestically and globally. Domestic demand weakened alongside a sharp decline in foreign demand, coupled with prolonged inflation, leading to a substantial economic slowdown in Vietnam.

In 2023, it was also a volatile year for the stock market, and PHS implemented flexible risk management strategies, such as adjusting force selling ratios to support business and hedge risks during periods of market volatility. Control measures were taken on the maximum loan price and loan ratio in accordance with legal provisions and market conditions. The risk management strategy underwent changes, with a focus on allocating margin outstanding structures primarily to large-cap, fundamental stocks, and clients with strong backgrounds. The risk management activities, particularly in margin trading services, proved highly effective. Notably, there were no new bad debts in the past year based on the assessment of bad debt resulting from margin trading services. The Risk Management Division collaborated effectively with the Research Division to conduct advanced analyses of listing companies eligible for margin trading, incorporating changes in risk management strategies to demonstrate adaptability and effectiveness in response to market changes.

With the anticipated launch of the KRX operational plan, expected to introduce new trading and settlement solutions, PHS aims to upgrade the stock market, attract investors, and boost liquidity. Based on the market situation in 2023, the Risk Management Division will develop policies suitable for the general market in 2024. The focus will be on good fundamental stocks to increase their proportion in the portfolio of securities allowed for margin trading. Additionally, policies will concentrate on enhancing the process of evaluating margin-traded securities to minimize risks for PHS and its customers, while supporting the overall business objectives of PHS.

Since PHS launched derivatives securities trading three years ago, the number of customers has had many opportunities to grow in 2024. With the continuous expansion of derivative products, the development of risk management strategies for this product needs to be proactive and improved to minimize negative impacts. The main identified risks include market risk, capital leverage, margin requirements, legal, liquidity, and system risk. As a response, the Risk Management Division will submit criteria to control risks in real-time, tailored to the market conditions, aiming to minimize risks in business activities in the Derivative Market. This proactive approach will help ensure the stability and security of operations while facilitating the growth and participation of customers in the Derivative Market.

In 2024, minimizing risks and supporting business operations are the paramount strategies in risk management operations. To uphold these strategies, the Risk Management Division will actively collaborate with the Research Division to conduct advanced analyses of listing companies eligible for margin trading. Additionally, the division will continue to utilize data analysis tools developed by the IT Division. This collaboration aims to assist the Risk Management Division in swiftly, accurately, and efficiently collecting data for submission to the Risk Management Committee.

Furthermore, the division plans to apply more diversified margin lists with different loan ratios to support safe and efficient business operations, enhancing competitiveness in the market. Above all, the risk management policies for 2024 must ensure independence, flexibility, uniformity, efficiency, and sustainability to foster business growth. This approach underscores the commitment to a robust risk management framework that contributes to the overall success and stability of PHS.

7. Information Technology

In 2023, PHS has made significant investments in its IT infrastructure. This includes a comprehensive improvement of the PHS website, deployment of a CRM system to enhance service and interaction with customers and the facilitation of remote customer support for the Customer Care Center. The company has successfully set up a backup data center, connected to the Stock Exchange and Viet Nam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation ("VSDC"), ensuring the continuous operation of the transaction system at a high level. Additionally, PHS has deployed technologies for smart OTP authentication, establishing high safety and security standards to ensure the safe operation of the transaction system. Furthermore, implemented an online solution for linking BIDV accounts, offering features like online deposits and withdrawals to facilitate faster and more convenient transactions for customers.

PHS worked continuously with securities trading software providers to upgrade its trading software, investing in technology infrastructure and systems to meet the technical requirements and connection standards of the new KRX trading system. This includes faster processing speeds, support for more market orders, and integration of new financial products from the Stock Exchange and VSDC.

In 2024, PHS plans to focus on significant improvements and deep investments in technology and trading platforms to enhance the quality of its products and services. The company aims to provide modern financial solutions and tools for optimal customer efficiency. Additionally, PHS will continue its heavy investment in information security, encompassing both technology and processes, to meet demands and ensure safe and reliable customer transactions.

PHS will embark on the development and comprehensive improvement of the new mobile app, web-trading, and eKYC. The company will also create tools for analysis and automatic data evaluation using algorithms, offering in-depth analytical information about enterprises and portfolio management. This initiative is designed to deliver the best customer experiences regarding the products and services offered by the company.

Furthermore, PHS plans to upgrade its servers, high-speed network equipment, and communication channels to the Stock Exchange, ensuring the ability to handle a large volume of transactions with minimal latency when the new KRX system becomes fully operational. The company is committed to building a backup datacenter to ensure the highest level of continuous operation for its trading system.

8. Human Resources

In 2023, our HR continuously innovated communication content to encourage the habit of accessing company information through internal channels such as email and Base Inside application. Simultaneously, various internal activities were retained, such as employee birthdays, team building, sports and arts festivals, etc., to create opportunities for interaction and networking among employees from the back office and front office.

In 2024, HR plans to improve the bonding activities based on the feedbacks and contributions from PHS members through quality program surveys. These improvements are aimed to make activities employee-friendly, fostering a sense of importance and belonging as part of the company, while enhancing PHS's image on social media. Honest sharing about work experiences and participation in engagement events will help potential candidates better understand the company and build trust before making any decisions on job applications. Each employee becomes a quality communication channel for the PHS brand.

Building on the success of the training roadmap implemented in 2023, HR in 2024 remains committed to enhancing not only professional knowledge but also refining and developing procedures, and professional sales skills tailored to each job position. This involves integrating technological advancements and providing personalized learning experiences through the E-learning system. - Long-Term Vision and Career Development: Establish mentorship programs to guide employees in crafting a long-term vision for their careers. Provide resources for personal and professional growth, ensuring a motivated and committed workforce.
- Performance Monitoring and Feedback: Utilize data analytics to track the effectiveness of training programs. Establish mentorship programs to guide employees in crafting a long-term vision for their careers. Implement a feedback mechanism to gather insights from employees, fostering a culture of continuous improvement.

In recent years, PHS has been making efforts to maintain and adjust attractive compensation and benefit policies to ensure the attraction of a skilled workforce and encourage long-term employee contributions at the company.

In 2024, salary, bonus, and benefit policies at the company will continue to be developed and implemented according to the following basic criteria:

- Compliance with labor laws: Ensure adherence to regulations on minimum wage, labor benefits, taxes, and other related labor laws.
- Alignment with the company's business situation and operating budget: Develop salary and benefit structures in line with the company's financial standing and operational budget.
- Salary and benefit payment mechanism: Implement a payment mechanism based on an employee's position, capacity, and experience.
- Bonus payment mechanism: Establish a bonus payment system tied to criteria evaluating employees' work performance and results throughout the year.
- Ensuring fairness and market competitiveness: Guarantee fairness within the company and competitiveness in the job market to foster a healthy, harmonious, and stable working environment.

2. The necessity of private share issuance to increase charter capital:

Following a well-planned development roadmap drafted by the Government, Vietnam stock market has been witnessing remarkable and continuing progress in the past couple years. The measures applied for upgrading the market, especially the introduction of various new products, has let investment in stock market become the most popular activity. On January 1st, 2021, the debut of the Law on Securities No. 54/2019/QH14, together with relevant Circulars and Decrees including Decree No. 155/2020/NĐ-CP and Circular No. 121/2020/TT-BTC, has provided a more profound legal basis in enhancing the quality of service and the transparency of listed enterprises.

In 2023, the Vietnamese stock market experienced many fluctuations. As of December 29 – the last working day of 2023, Vietnam's benchmark VN-Index closed at 1,129.93 points, increasing by 12.19% compared to 2022. With policies supporting businesses as well as promoting economic growth to recover, market developments are also more positive along with average session liquidity recovering significantly.

The total volume of stock transactions from 2023 reached more than 222 billion shares with a total value of nearly VND 4.4 quadrillion, corresponding to the average trading volume reached 894.3 million shares/session (increasing 10.5% compared to 2022) and average trading value of VND 17,579 billion/session (decreasing 12.9% compared to 2022).

The capitalization and listing scale of the stock market continued to increase compared to the end of 2022. By the end of 2023, stock market capitalization stood at VND 5,937 trillion, an increase of 13.6% on year, equivalent to 58.1% of the estimated GDP in 2023. The market's listed and registered trading scale reached VND 2,128 trillion, an increase of 7.3% compared to the end of 2022 with 739 shares and fund certificates on Stock Exchanges (HNX and HSX) and 862 shares registered for trading on UPCoM.

To seize this development opportunity, PHS needs to increase financial capacity to meet capital needs for securities trading customers and be able to provide new products in 2024 and the following years.

Based on the current development situation of the Company and potential market growth, raising capital in the form of private share issuance is necessary to supplement business capital for the operations of the Company.
