

Dear Valued Customers,

The securities prices shown in this trading system are provided by an independent software developer. All information and data shown in this software can be considered as a reliable source. However, in the process of electronic data transmission, it's unavoidable to prevent technical problems, which are beyond Phu Hung Securities Corporation's control and may affect the speed of updating data as well as the accuracy of data. Therefore, Customers accept that technical problems occurred considered as the risks, which are under scope of Risk statement in the account opening contract signed by Customers and Phu Hung Securities Corporation.

1. The system has set limits on securities trading in accordance with the law. When invalid trading orders arise (not complying with the regulations of the Stock Exchanges on price, volume, order type, cash balance, securities balance ...), the system will control itself and block these orders.
2. When placing the selling-orders, customers must have a sufficient quantity of securities to sell on the account.
3. When placing the buying-orders, customers must have sufficient margin amount on the account.
4. Profit and loss data shown in this trading system is determined according to the formula of Phu Hung Securities Corporation and may differ from the index calculated on other principles.
5. Customers please consider it as a source of reference, and think carefully about your decisions of securities trading.
