

VN-Index's trend

➤ Weekly chart

Current price: 788 points
 Support level: 780-785 points
 Resistant level: 820-825 points

VN-Index saw another recovering week. The index returned to close above most important MA lines from MA5 to MA26, and ADX was above 31 while +DI being above -DI, meaning that middle and long-term recovering trend is still there.

Not just that, other technical indicators also showed positive recovering motivation, as RSI increased to 68 and the volume increased to above 10 and 20 week average, showing that the cash flow is joining in.

Therefore, we keep our point of view that middle and long-term recovering trend is still continuing.

► Daily chart

VN-Index's short-term trend is still there, since it stayed below MA5 and 20. Meanwhile, +DI is cutting up and tending to raise the gap with -DI, showing that buying signs are returning.

Moreover, other technical indicators also showed positive signs, as MACD is cutting up to Signal line and RSI increased to 62, showing that recovering motivation is getting stronger, and the index might move to challenge sentimental resistant level of 800 points in the next few sessions.

In general, recovering trend is still there. Therefore, investors might continue raising a small weight on the codes with growing business results that might lead the market.

HNX-Index's trend

➤ Weekly chart

Current price: 103.8 points
 Support level: 101.9 points
 Resistant level: 105.9 points

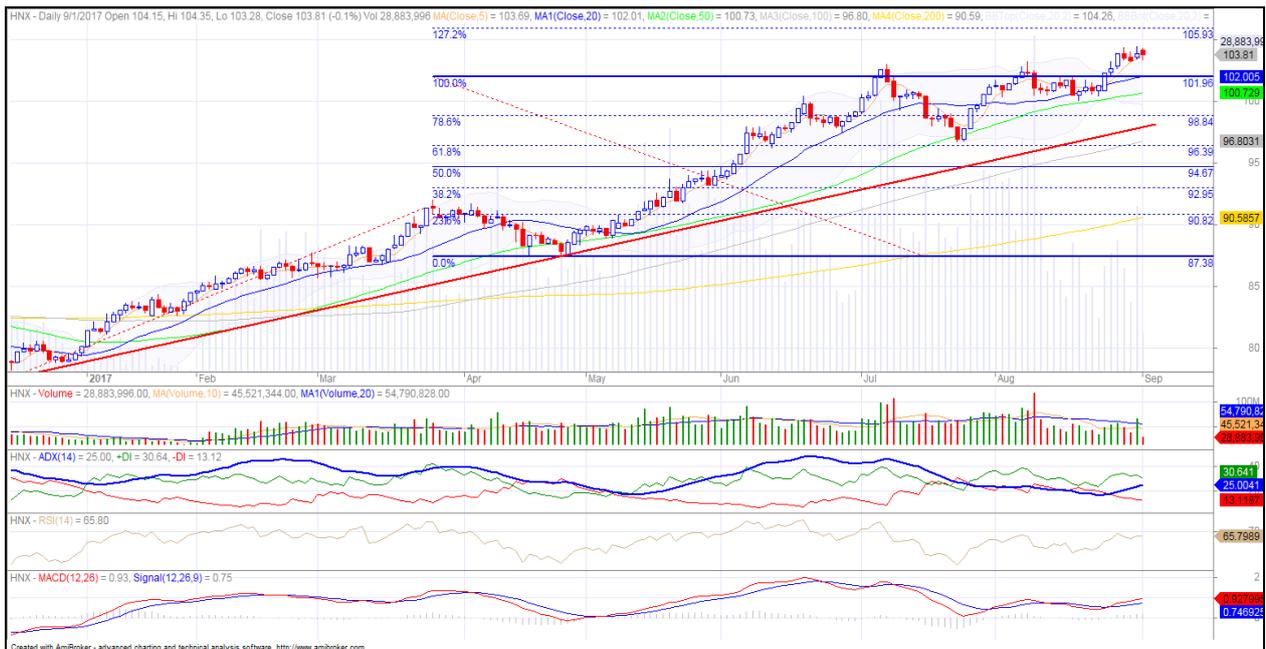

HNX-Index showed that middle and long-term recovering trend is still there, since it saw another gaining week and stayed above MA5, 13, and 26, while ADX was above 44 with +DI being above -DI, supporting current trend.

Moreover, other technical indicators also showed positive signs, like MACD stayed above Signal line or RSI increased again to 74, showing that recovering motivation is getting stronger.

Therefore, we think that HNX-Index's middle and long-term recovering trend is still there. So investors might hold on to a high share weight for long-term positions.

➤ Daily chart

Seeing a drop at the end of the week but HNX-Index still held on to a recovering trend in short-term. The index closed above most important MA lines from MA5 to MA200. At the same time, ADX increased to 25 and +DI was above –DI, confirming current trend.

Not just that, other technical indicators also sported gaining trend, like MACD increased to cut Signal line, confirming buying signs, and RSI increased to 65, showing that gaining motivation might continue and the index might move to challenge 105.9 points next week.

Therefore, we think that short-term recovering trend might continue. So we keep our point of view that investors might consider buying at a small weight on the codes with positive Q3/2017 business results.
