

VN-Index's trend

➤ Weekly chart

Current price: 1,123 points
 Support level: 1,100-1,110 points
 Resistant level: 1,170-1,180 points

VN-Index saw the 3rd recovering week in a row, and stayed above important sentimental level of 1,100 points with higher volume than previous week, showing that the cash flow is joining in. At the same time, the index is also above MA13 and 26, showing that the gaining trend in middle and long-term is still there.

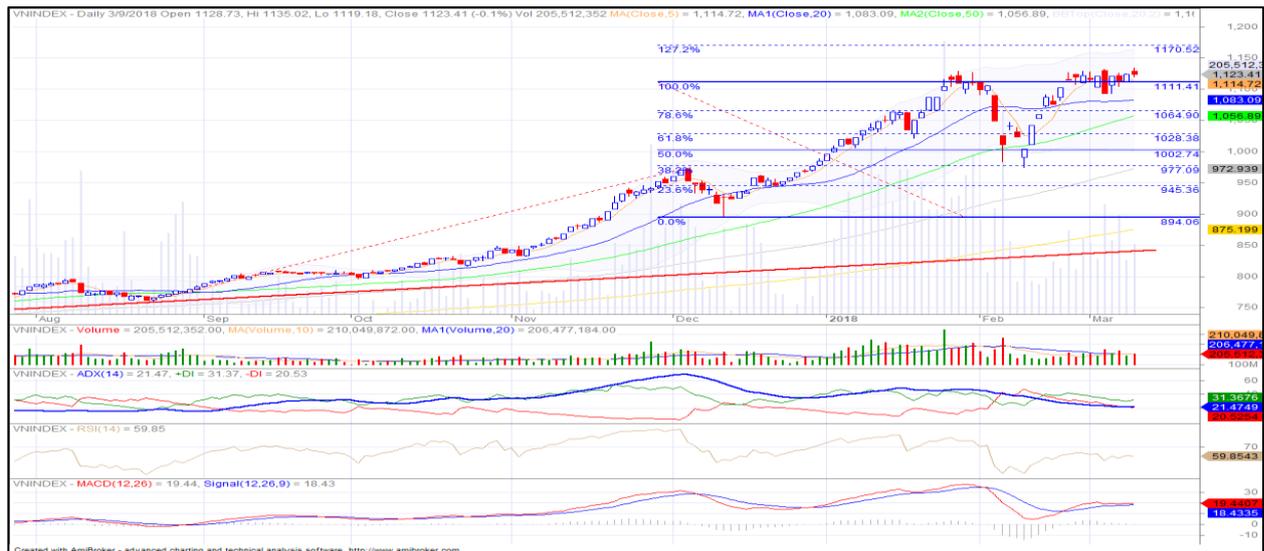

Not just that, other technical indicators like RSI, MACD or ADX are still supporting current trend.

- RSI increased to 72, showing stronger recovering motivation.
- MACD is above Signal line, maintaining middle and long-term buying signs.
- +DI is maintaining the distance above –DI, showing that the index might still move upward in near future.

Therefore, we think that the gaining trend in middle and long-term is still there. So investors might hold on to long-term positions.

VN-Index's trend

Daily chart

VN-Index shows that recovering motivation is still quite positive. The index dropped at the end of the week but still stayed above most important MA lines from MA5 to MA200, showing that the main trend is still recovering.

Not just that, other technical indicators are still showing signs supporting the trend, as MACD and RSI still increased. Especially, ADX stayed above 21 with +DI being above – DI, showing that the gaining trend is being confirmed, therefore, the index might move to challenge supportive level of 1,170 points (historical peak).

Therefore, we still think that the gaining trend is still there, so investors might raise a small weight on leading codes with positive 2018 business prospect.

HNX-Index's trend

➤ Weekly chart

Current price: 127.5 points
 Support level: 119.9 points
 Resistant level: 134.4 points

HNX-Index's recovering trend in middle and long-term is still there. The index dropped again but still closed above MA5, 13, and 26 while ADX was above 45 with +DI being above -DI, supporting current trend.

Moreover, other technical indicators also showed positive signs, as MACD stayed above Signal line and RSI increased to 68 again, showing that recovering motivation is getting stronger.

Therefore, we think that HNX-Index's recovering trend in middle and long-term is still there. Therefore, investors might hold on to a high share weight for long-term positions.

HNX-Index showed similar signs with VN-Index. HNX-Index's short-term recovering trend is still there as the index stayed above MA5 and 20, and ADX was above 20 with +DI being above -DI, confirming current trend.

Not just that, other technical indicators like RSI and MACD are showing signs supporting recovering trend in short-term, like MACD staying on positive uptrend, and RSI being above 57, showing that recovering motivation is getting stronger, and the index might move to challenge 134.6 points (Fib 261.8).

In general, short-term recovering trend is still there and the index might move to challenge higher resistant levels. Therefore, investors might raise a small weight on leading codes.
